This thread discusses the Content article: Supreme Court Making Decision On The Second Amendment

This is a good thing for the second amendment even with the risks that are involved. It will show that the federal government has not done its job to defend the constitution for the last thirty years. It will expose what the illegal laws have done to honest citizens of D.C. How many have gone to prison while following their constitutional rights that the politicians have sworn to protect? How will they be exposed and shouldn't they be prosecuted for treason for these crimes against the citizens of the United States of America?

While we are on this subject, please explain to people you know about the Castle Doctrine. It seems that people in New Jersey have no clue they can't defend their homes without being prosecuted. The more that know and understand the more it has a chance of happening here. I know it is just a dream but it is a nice dream.
