I'm no fan of government telling you what to do, but what amazes me is they don't even believe in accommodating others. I don't smoke or like it but if someone is imitating a smokestack while playing the one armed bandits I go somewhere else where it isn't so bad. They didn't even allow the idea of separate areas for smokers or non-smokers. Granted that should be the owner's decision but it would have at least given the appearance of fairness.

About the only thing Corzine and every member of the Assembly and Senate hasn't done is extended an extended middle finger to the voter's and asked, "What are you gonna do about it?":ohmy:
